A NIGHT OF HORROR.

Remarkable Case of Restored Animation—A Woman Supposed to be Dead Creates a Midnight Panic.

From the New York Star, June 1.

One of the most remarkable instances of restored animation which has ever taken place in this city, occurred on Sunday night last in Varick street, near McDougal, the particulars of which are as follows: An aged lady, named Rebecca Townsend, who has been ailing for several weeks past, expired, as was supposed, on Sunday morning last. That she really was dead, no one who saw her for a moment hesitated to believe. The set eyeballs, the rigid limbs, and the apparent cessation of respiration, all pointed to the supposed fact that death had come to the relief of the invalid. Accordingly, on Sunday the sorrowing household, acting on this belief, commenced making preparations for the burial of the body. A burial permit was obtained, a coffin ordered, and the remains washed and attired in the habiliaments of the grave.—Delay arising relative to the preparation of the coffin, the remains were temporarily laid out upon the bed in which the old lady was supposed to have died, and the services of a watcher (a young female residing in a neighboring house) were secured to attend the body during Sunday night.

About 11 o'clock on Sunday evening the members of the household retired, leaving the watcher alone at her disagreeable task. As the young lady states she became drowsy about 2 o'clock in the morning, and, espousing herself in an arm-chair a short distance from the corpse, soon fell into a doze. She had not slept above an hour, when she was awakened by a low, moaning sound which apparently issued from the couch upon which lay the supposed corpse. Startled by the strange noise, the watcher immediately sprang from her chair, and approached the bed for the purpose of ascertaining the cause of the mysterious sounds. At this moment the noise suddenly ceased. There lay the corpse just as the watcher had left it one hour before, the eyes all set in death, the limbs still rigid, and not a sign of life visible. Believing the sounds which she fancied she had heard were but fancies conjured up by a mind excited by the uncomfortable position in which she was placed, the watcher returned to her seat, and resumed her nap. She had not remained in this condition more than half an hour, when she was again aroused by sounds similar to those which had previously alarmed her. Again she sprang from her chair and approached the bedside, when, horror of horrors, her eyes met the wandering gaze of the supposed corpse. Could it be possible that she was dreaming? She passed her hands to her eyes to convince herself that she did not sleep. Slowly the eyes of the corpse commenced rolling in their sockets, the muscles of the face relaxed, the jaws contracted, and as the filmy eyeballs rested upon the countenance of the appalled watcher they appeared to entreat the woman to come to her relief. Horror riveted the watcher to the seat. She attempted to scream for assistance, but her tongue refused her utterance. As she continued to gaze upon the living corpse, the arms began to move and the right hand was slowly lifted to the mouth as if the corpse implored drink.—The corpse next commenced assuming an upright position, and finally, after an effort of several minutes, sat bolt upright in bed. This last movement proved too much for the nerves of the fright-stricken watcher, and staggering from the bedside she fell fainting on the floor.

The noise occasioned by the fall awoke the inmates of the house, who hastened to the room. There sat the woman, still upright in bed, at the foot of which lay the convulsed form of the terror-stricken watcher. Discerning the state of affairs, the household immediately dispatched a servant for the nearest physician, who shortly after arrived upon the scene, and, by due application of restoratives, succeeded in reviving the supposed corpse sufficiently to enable her to respire freely. The watcher, by the administration of the proper restoratives, was, after much difficulty, also restored to consciousness, but her nerves received a shock which will probably tell upon her constitution, until her dying day. She avows she will never again serve as a watcher of a corpse, and no wonder at it.

THE COW PEA AS A FERTILIZER FOR WHEAT.

We have long been satisfied, from actual experiment, that the common cow pea of the Southern States, when properly managed, afford the best and, at the same time, the cheapest medium for the restoration of our exhausted cotton fields. Its effects have been as lasting and as marked upon the fertility of our soils as that of clover upon the worn and exhausted lands of Virginia and Maryland.

The main reason why the cow pea has not been heretofore extensively used as a fertilizer, was owing to the fact that previous to emancipation our planters would not give up a sufficient portion of their lands to await the rather slow effects of this most valuable fertilizer. Now, however, when every planter has a large proportion of his poor lands lying idle, there is no excuse why the pea should not be sown every field not absolutely necessary for corn or cotton.

Now is the best time to plant the pea, and we desire to give our agricultural friends the result of a careful experiment made by a planter in Gwinnett county to encourage them to make similar efforts.

Our Gwinnett planter had a piece of old exhausted land, twenty acres of which had been lying in Broom sage for a number of years. This he broke deep with a turn plow in the Summer, and in the succeeding Fall put down in wheat. The crop, carefully measured, was a little less than four bushels to the acre.

As soon as the wheat was cut he sowed peas at the rate of two bushels to the acre. Early in October the peas were turned under with a deep furrow, and a few weeks later wheat was sown and carefully harrowed in upon the pea sod. The yield from the crop was nine bushels to the acre, a little more than double the first year's crop.

The field was again sown in peas as soon as the wheat was harvested and turned under as before in the Fall, and wheat sown upon the soil. The yield this year was was seventeen and a half bushels.

The fourth year, with the same treatment, he made twenty-seven bushels, and this (the fifth year) the crop bids fair to make forty bushels. Nothing has been applied to the land as a fertilizer except the pea, and we find that in five years, with the cow pea alone, the production has been increased ten-fold. This actual experiment speaks more for the pea than any argument which we could make.

We trust some of our planting friends will be indued to try the pea on the next crop of wheat and let us know the result of their experiment.—Augusta Chronicle & Sentinel.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,

CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.

Being situated in the northwestern part of the State in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.

The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of those waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.

The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.

Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.

FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.

Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CAZER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.

The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

BOARD:

For one single month,	$50 00
For two or more months, $40 per month, or at that rate.
Per week,	16 00
Per day,	3 50

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, JUNE 10, 1869.

SOCIAL CIRCLE.

We deem it proper that the "social circle" should be properly defined and ascertained. It should be defined by metes and bounds that it may not be mistaken for the political circle. Unwittingly, we have stepped, sometimes, into the social circle and at the peril of our life.

When the Legislative Committee, with Cebe Harris as chairman, purchased 8,000 acres of barren land for a Penitentiary at $100,000, we denounced it as a fraud and swindle, notwithstanding it had the approval of the Governor. This was regarded as an invasion of the "social circle," and Cebe, the Superintendent, met us at the depot, with the mob to take our life. We published Cebe's bill and charges as Deputy Marshal, in the case of Cohen, in Bankruptcy, as $400, $300 of it being for storage of goods for two months, and here was a second invasion of the "social circle."

Bibles, a carpet bag man, negotiated for the purchase of the Hide county swamp lands from the State at $30,000, and before he got a deed from the State, he had negotiated to sell the same lands, in New York, for $90,000. This we denounced as a Penitentiary swindle and fraud, and here was the fourth invasion of the "social circle."

As President of the North Carolina Rail road, we sold over $300,000 of the North Carolina Railroad eight per cent mortgage bonds at par, we never sold one at less than par. The Treasurer, with the approval of the Governor, sold the same bonds at 65 cents. These bonds have never sold at that price before nor since. The purchaser at 65 cents sold them next day at 80 cents, and they now sell at 85 and 90. Here was the fifth invasion of the "social circle."

Treasurer Jenkins and his fat son walked the streets for several days, with bludgeons in hand, threatening us, because we said this transaction with his failure to pay the interest on the State debt showed, he was no more fit for his place than a hen was to hatch a hawk.

We offered $50,000 reward (payable in Confederate money) for Judge Alden, one of Gov. Holden's reconstruction staff, who traveled over the State with the Judges, who, with the negroes and the sword, were forcing into the Union, a people who had never been out. Here was the sixth invasion of the "social circle."

Alden, we can prove by General Littlefield, to be no better than an unconverted thief. Alden said, "he could buy up the Legislature, and it had been done." We so published, and here was the seventh invasion of the "social circle."

A Republican gentleman raised by Governor Holden informed us that he put down the new carpets in the capitol, and that a remnant of carpet was taken for the private parlor of the Secretary of State, Dr. Menninger. That the Doctor made him patch the carpet, and use scraps which should not have been used, that the figures of the carpet did not match &c., &c. He further States that the Doctor had two cushions in his buggy, which had been made by him for chairs in the capitol.

This Radical gentleman further stated that a little negro took from the sideboard of the Doctor, a bit of cake ate it and denied it. The Doctor tested the truth of the matter by giving her 10 grains of ipecac, and she threw up the cake.

We inquire how much ipecac it would take to made the Doctor throw up the carpet and the cushions.

Here was the eighth invasion of the "Social Circle."

Now in justice to Dr. Menninger we must say that no ipecac is needed about the carpet, for the Doctor purchased the carpet that was left at a reduced price and he had the right to use it as he did.

This we have learned since the Radical gentleman's statement to us. We are never ashamed to beg pardon and make amends when we do sullies. We now say, no ipecac is needed for the carpet, but we can't say the same for the cushions.

"Hon." Windy Billy Henderson was indicted for stealing a mule. We invaded the social circle for the ninth time, by publishing the fact and asking how much ipecac would be necessary to make him throw up the mule. The Jury acquitted Billy, and that is evidence he did not swallow the mule, and, though the guilty are sometimes acquitted, we have no reason to believe it was so in this case.

On the 5th of June, 1861, Governor Holden, editing the Standard, asked, "Who would plot for the head of Abe Lincoln." We cried shame on the dastard who would so print and publish, and here was the eleventh invasion of the "social circle."

The Supreme Court, to get possession of their own room, put Auditor Adam's papers out of the room into the rotunda. We published the fact, and said his papers looked like an Edgecombe compost heap, and here was the twelfth invasion of the "social circle."

The Grand Jury of Wake presented the Editor of the Standard, General Littlefield, for lobbying and attempting to bribe the Legislature with whiskey and money. We published it, and here was the thirteenth invasion of the "social circle."

Governor Holden said, Senator Abbott, "our duelist," made $75,000 in one year. We republished the fact, with the additional fact that he paid no tax that year, and here was the fourteenth invasion of the "social circle."

We would fain call the attention of Judge Brooks to the fact that men in bankruptcy are compelled to advertise and pay their money to the Standard newspaper, when that paper had impeached and impugned the chastity of every lady of the State, but this would be an invasion of the social circle, and to change the rule in advertising would take money from the pockets of a carpet-bagger.

It Judge Chase holding Court in Ohio would make an order giving any portion of the printing to a newspaper that had reflected on the virtue and chastity of the ladies of that State as did the Standard on the ladies of North Carolina, the Judge would not be able to ride the circuit in safety.

Our fifteenth invasion of the "social circle" was in publishing the fact that Dr. Grissom, head man of the Lunatic Asylum, invited the Committee who were engaged in locating the Penitentiary to dine with him. When they came, he notified one of their number, the negro, Howe, that, although acting with the Committee, he (Howe) could not dine at the table with the rest of his political brethren.

For this invasion of the circle the Doctor blackguarded us in the most approved language of billingsgate as if we had no more sensibility or sense of shame, than our shameless Governor.

For these invasions of the social circle, the Governor's son Joe, who broke his tickler on the train in the presence of one female and many gentlemen, threatened to shoot us on sight, and with Cebe Harris, the Superintendent of Public Works, with Menninger, brother of the Secretary of State, with Jenkins, the son of the Treasurer, with Bozier, the Governor's detective, with Farriss, the Governor's Keeper of the Capitol, with a little Cebe whose name we don't know, with Pike of the Standard office, and a bully keeper of a grogshop in Gaston county, met us at the depot with arms and sticks to take our life.

These fifteen invasions of the social circle have rendered us so timid, that we can no longer trust to our knowledge of the rules of this circle. Therefore we call for some one who has a clear conception of these "Rules" to lay down, not only for us but for the guidance of the ignorant and timid, a "Social Map" by which we could ascertain with clearness, the line where the social circle ends and the political circle begins.

THE COURT AND THE BAR.

That our readers may properly understand the controversy now going on between the Supreme Court and the Bar, we republish the protest of the Bar.

We understand that paper originated with and was written by Hon. B. F. Moore, who is justly regarded as the father and head of the bar in North Carolina.

Mr. Moore was never a politician, but always a statesman, looking with dread and horror upon secession. He has not been able to approve of the jacobinical acts which have characterized reconstruction and radicalism. He would not publish the protest of the Bar during the campaign, because it would give to the protest a political aspect which might rob it of its moral force and effect.

No man can suspect Mr. Moore of an attempt to murder or degrade the Judiciary. With him there was no anger, passion, or party in the protest. It is well known that Mr. Moore has taken little or no interest in party politics for many years. He has seen so much of party folly and passion, in all parties, that he has not been able to heartily co-operate with any party. The temper, moderation and reasoning, of the protest is such as to carry conviction to every unprejudiced mind. In the protest, strong and vehement assertions are avoided; it is cautious in its positions, accurate in its deductions, and aimed only at truth and a desire to save a fallen and politically prostituted Judiciary from further pollution. To show the prostitution of the Judiciary, we publish extracts from the programme of a Radical meeting to be held in this City, in which the Judiciary figure with the politicians and the negroes.

When the Court convened on Tuesday last, Chief Justice Pearson called attention to the following rule of the Court.

"The Court, being informed of a certain libellous publication, directly tending to impair the respect due to the authority of the Court, which was published in the Sentinel, a newspaper printed in Raleigh, on the 19th of April, 1869, and headed, "A solemn protest of the bar of North Carolina," and purporting to be signed by certain attorneys of this Court, orders that the Clerk of this Court inquire and report to this Court which of the persons whose names appear to be signed to said publication are attorneys practising in this Court.

The Clerk thereupon reported that the following persons whose names appeared signed to said publication are attorneys practising in this Court; as appears from its records, to wit: Messrs. B. F. Moore, E. G. Haywood, Thos. Bragg, Sion H. Rogers, Jos. B. Batchelor, A. S. Merrimon, H. A. Gilliam, C. M. Busbee, Wm. Eaton, Jr., Ed. Conigland, Geo. V. Strong, J. P. Wooten, John Hughes, Richd. W. York, W. A. Jenkins, Wm. K. Barham, Asa Biggs, T. J. Jarvis, C. C. Clark, Wm. T. Dortch, T. B. Venable, John Kerr, Z. B. Vance, Joseph J. Davis and E. J. Warren.

On the return of the report of the Clerk the Court orders that the attorneys named in said report on account of the matter aforesaid, be disabled from hereafter appearing as attorneys or counsellors in this Court, unless they shall severally appear on Tuesday, the 15th. of June, 1869, and show cause to the contrary; and it is further ordered that a copy of this order be served on said attorneys."

The Chief Justice, we are informed, likened it to murder, but said "it being done under the excitement of a political contest, it might be regarded by the Court as manslaughter, but as the case now appeared it was as if the bar had been laying in wait to murder the Judiciary."

This is fine sport for Holden. We publish, also, an Editorial from the Standard, which smacks of Holden's pen. We say of his pen, for no other pen can so exaggerate and misrepresent. No other man can so put truth and justice and decency to disadvantage in a contest with passion and party. The palpable falsehood in the eighth line of the Standard's editorial would go to show the paternity. "Yesterday (says the Standard) they (the protesting lawyers) had a Committee appointed to endeavor to accommodate, on honorable terms, the breach between the Court and the Bar. We hope the breach will be accommodated on honorable terms," &c., &c. This is Holden all over. He hopes no such thing. This whole article shows how exultant he is over the breach.

It will be remembered that Judge Reade wrote the infamous address of the Legislature signed by eighty-eight members. The address of which John Ragland, Republican member from Granville, said the men who signed it should be hung with a grape vine untrimmed. Chief Justice Pearson wrote a hypocritical letter during the campaign pretending he feared war. Rodman, Dick and Settle, traversed the State haranguing the negroes, only a few ignorant whites going out to hear them. They are, emphatically, the negroe's Judges.

We tell the Court that it is their own conduct that has "tended to impair the respect due to their authority," and not the protest of the bar. The Court may hold the bar in contempt, but the peple will hold them in honor for the protest.

GRAND REPUBLICAN RALLY.—As throwing some light on the subject of controversy now pending between the Supreme Court and the members of the Bar, on account of the Protest of the latter (which we republish to day) and as appropos to the matter and substance of the Protest, we give below some extracts from the published arrangements of the "Grand Republican Rally" which came off in this city, on the 16th of September, 1868, to be found in the Weekly Standard, of the 26th August.

After stating that the Republican State Executive Committee had entire management of all preliminary arrangements, the report of that Committee is given announcing the sub-committees, among which are the following:

Committee on Railroad Transportation—C. L. Harris, A. W. Tourgee, (the Judge.)

Officers of the Day—Hon. E. G. Reade, President, Hon. W. B. Rodman, Thos. Settle, R. P. Dick, (Associate Justices of the Supreme Court) Handy Lockhart, (negro,) (and some others) Vice-Presidents.

Marshals—A. W. Tourgee, (Judge.)

(The name of Judge Tourgee again appears on the general committee of arrangements.)

On other committees of this purely political rally, in which much intemperate demonstration and inflammatory declamation was intermixed, (see the report of the god of turpentine invocation by the son of his daddy) the names of most of the high officials of the State, then just elected, may be found, including that of His Excellency, the Governor, the State Treasurer, Secretary of State, and many others of the various departments, together with those of several "men and brethren," since put on State Boards, the Magistracy, &c.

A FORTUNE IN THE ROUGH—A $300,000 DIAMOND.—A few days ago a gentleman came up the river on the steamer New Boston, who privately exhibited to the officers of that packet a diamond in the rough, which, in its unpolished state, is supposed to be worth somewhere in the vicinity of $300,000. It is further supposed to be the second or third diamond in size in the world. It is about the size of a walnut, is perfectly transparent, and has the power of magnifying to the same extent as a first quality glass. The lucky possessor found it at his home in the gold mining districts of Nova Scotia, and also stated that he had one or two small ones, one of which he sold for $12 000 in its rough state. To convince the officers of the boat, he produced flies of Nova Scotia papers containing accounts of the finding of the diamond, minute descriptions of the same, descriptions of the finder, and other evidence indisputable to be questioned. He also showed letters from prominent New York jewelers, who had examined the prize, one of which was from the house of Ball, Black & Co. He is going to Iowa to see about landed investments, with a view of some day locating there.—He proposes to have the diamond polished, and sell it to some crowned head if possible. For the benefit of the ladies we will state that we don't know whether he is married or not.

There is no "cave" in this story.—Rock Island Argus.

The story is told by a French journal that in a provincial town a gentleman's house was rendered dark and damp by a tree which stood too near his windows. He could not cut it down because it belonged to the commune, and he knew an application to the authorities would be unavailing. Accordingly he sent for insertion in one of the Paris papers the following paragraph: "There is still in existence one of the trees of liberty of the date of 1793. It may be seen at X, close to the house of M. A. B., and the passers-by reverently uncover their heads to this venerable witness of our grandest struggles and our most illustrious victory." Three days afterwards an order came from the prefecture in Paris for the mayor of X to cause the said tree to be cut down, which was accordingly done forthwith.

Somnambulism is a very dangerous affection, which it has hitherto been found extremely difficult to cure. Professor Pellizzari, of Florence, seems to have hit upon a successful as well as a curious plan, which simply consists in winding once or twice round one's leg, on going to bed, a thin flexible copper wire, long enough to reach the floor. Eighteen somnambulists treated in this way have been either radically cured or temporarily weaned from their unfortunate infirmity. The Gazzetta Medica, of Venice, which reports the fact, saying that copper wire is known to dissipate magnetic somnambulism, and that this circumstance led the Professor to have recourse to this strange remedy.

The New York Post publishes a sensation dispatch from Washington which is making a very great stir. The substance of it is that the leaders of the Republican party at Washington have resolved on a grand campaign against England on the Alabama question in the next autumn elections. In this way, the calculation is, they can infuse a new element into our domestic politics, and take the wind out of the sails of the Democracy at the same time.

THERE are said to be 50,000 "commercial travellers" in the United States, divided as follows: Belonging to Boston and the New England States, 10,000; New York, 20,000; Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Louis, 10,000; Pennsylvania, and Maryland, including Philadelphia, Pittsburg and Baltimore, 10,000,

A SOLEMN PROTEST OF THE BAR OF NORTH CAROLINA AGAINST JUDICIAL INTERFERENCE IN POLITICAL AFFAIRS.

The undersigned, present or former members of the bar of North Carolina, have witnessed the late public demonstrations of political partizanship, by the Judges of the Supreme Court of the State, with profound regret and unfeigned alarm for the purity of the future administration of the laws of land.

Active and open participation in the strife of political contests by any Judge of the State, so far as we recollect, or tradition, or history, has informed us, was unknown to the people until the late exhibitions. To say that these were wholly unexpected, and that a prediction of them, by the wisest amongst us, would have been spurned as incredible, would not express half of our astonishment, or the painful shock suffered by our feelings when we saw the humiliating fact accomplished.

Not only did we not anticipate it, but we thought it was impossible to be done in our day. Many of us have passed through political times almost as excited as those of to-day; and most of us, recently, through one more excited; but, never before, have we seen the Judges of the Supreme Court, singly or en masse, moved from that becoming propriety so indispensible to secure the respect of the people, and throwing aside the ermine rush into the mad contest of politics under the excitement of drums and flags. From the unerring lessons of the past we are assured, that a judge who openly and publicly displays his political party zeal, renders himself unfit to hold the "balance of justice," and that whenever an occasion may offer to serve his fellow partizan, he will yield to the temptation and the "swerving balance" will shake.

It is a natural weakness in man, that he, who warmly and publicly identifies himself with a political party, will be tempted to uphold the party which upholds him, and all experience teaches us that a partizan judge cannot be safely trusted to settle the great principles of a political constitution, while he reads and studies the book of its laws under the banners of a party.

Unwilling that our silence should be construed into an indifference to the humiliating spectacle now passing around us; influenced solely by a spirit of love and veneration for the past purity, which has distinguished the administration of the law in our State, and animated by the hope that the voice of the bar of North Carolina will not be powerless to avert the pernicious example, which we have denounced, and to repress its contagious influence, we have under a sense of solemn duty subscribed and published this paper:

A LOYAL PREACHER COMS TO GRIEF.—Last Sunday night the poultry house of Wm. Reynolds, Esq., near Balcony Falls, was broken open and sundry fowls stolen. For some time back robberies have been frequent upon the place, and suspicion had settled upon the Rev. Josh King, colored, a loyal preacher during his leisure hours, and a trifling hand when at work. He was tracked by the heavy heel taps on his boots; a witness was found who overheard said Josh making the arrangements with another negro to furnish him a turkey that night. Mr. Reynolds proceeded to Lexington, got a warrant for the arrest of his Reverence and Capt. Wilkerson, constable, soon landed him in jail, where he now is, waiting his trial for larceny at June court, with ample time to meditate upon the truth of the old song, "Chicken meat too good for niggers." The said Josh was raised in Rockbridge an honest negro, and emigrated to Ohio soon after the war, where he soon obtained employment in the State prison. He came back Radical to the backbone, and his present position is the moral of this story.—Lynchburg News.

General Butler was taking tea at the house of a lady friend in Washington the other day. The General seemed to look as though something was lacking, and the following dialogue took place:

Hostess; "Can it be possible, General, that you have no spoon?"

Butler (rising indignantly, and holding out both hands): "No, madam; if you don't believe it, you can search me."

From an old advertisement published in the Georgia Journal, Milledgeville, in 1819, it is found that William H. Seward was at one time a Georgia schoolmaster.—He is therein announced as "late from Union College, New York, from which institution he comes highly recommended as a young gentleman of good moral character and distinguished industry and literary acquirements."

Rossini's unpublished music has been sold by Madame Rossini to M. Mouchotte for £6,000. That is at the rate of £40 per composition, there having been 161 pieces. When asked for his autograph, Rossini invariably wrote a stanza of four times, expressive of long suffering love, which endures, but is silent. Ten copies of these four common-place lines were found amongst his papers.

Explanatory Drawing.—The Drawing by the Real and Personal Estate Agency, anxiously looked for by persons who had taken stock, came off on Saturday, according to published programme. The weather was weeping, but the expectant people were not deterred by that, and went in numbers to Tucker Hall to watch the operation. A good deal of excitement was caused when the owners of lucky tickets claimed their prizes as their number was drawn.

J. M. Blair, Esq., of the Yarborough House, drew the $650 piano; Mr. Wesley Whitaker drew a $50 china set, and Mrs. Pepper, wife of the caterer, drew a $12 hearth rug. Very many of the tickets were sold out of town, and we have not the names of the holders. Every one was satisfied with the arrangements of the drawing, and this augurs well for the grand drawing of which this is explanatory."—Standard.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

THURSDAY, JUNE 10, 1869.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—See the advertisement of the City Treasurer, offering $50,000 of City bonds for sale.

G. T. Stronach offers a number of choice articles in the grocery line.

☞ We notice the largest crowds of customers in and about the stores that advertise most. ☜

REMOVAL OF THE MARKET.—The City Market has been temporarily removed from the market square to the Baptist Grove, where it will be held during the process of building the new market house. No notice having been given of the intended change, a number of citizens came to market with their baskets, this morning, and returned with them empty, under the belief that our country cousins had all suddenly become so busy in their crops that they could not come to market. We suppose there were several slim dinners in the city to-day on account of purchasers not knowing of the removal, but let them go to the old Baptist Grove to morrow and lay in a supply to make up for lost time.

MARKET.—Ben. Kirkham will have No. 1 Beef and Mutton in Market on Saturday morning. If you don't believe this, call and he will convince you.

REMEMBER the several explanatory drawings of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, will take place at Tucker Hall, to-morrow afternoon.

SUPREME COURT.—The Court met to day at the usual hour. Present: Pearson, C. J., and Reade, J. The other members of the bench, Messrs. Rodman, Settle and Dick, having gone to Chapel Hill, to attend the Commencement. The Court adjourned without transacting any business.

IMPROVING.—We notice that the earth taken from the excavation for the new market house, is being used for grading Fayetteville street, which will very much improve that beautiful and pleasant thoroughfare.

The bridge across the gully on Harrington street, we observe, has been repaired, and none too soon, but we think an oversight was committed in putting down so much of the old timbers which are in a very decayed condition.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—The Court met this morning according to adjournment.

H. W. Guion, on motion, was admitted to practice in this Court.

E. F. Moore vs. Steamer C. W. Lord.—Mr. Waddell for the Appellant, Messrs. Person and Fuller, Appellee. Appeal from the decision of the District Court—opinion deferred.

Opinion of Chief Justice Chase in the case of Timothy Hunter vs. Schooner Mary Ann, was given dismissing the libel.

[The pressure upon our columns make it necessary to condense as much as possible the proceedings of this Court.]

United States vs. H. E. Croom, distilling illegally. Hon. Thos. Bragg appearing for the defendant. Case continued until next term upon defendant giving bond in the sum of $1,000.

The Grand Jury found the following true bills of indictment:

United States vs. W. H. Terry for distilling illegally.

United States vs. J. H. Hardgrove for retailing.

United States vs. Thos. Yeates and M. Ward for distilling.

AFTERNOON SESSION.—Yesterday afternoon the United States Circuit Court, after we had gone to press, disposed of the following cases: Timothy Hunter vs. Schooner Mary Ann. Hon. W. N. H. Smith appeared for plaintiff, and R. B. Gilliam for the defendant. This case came up on an appeal from Albemarle District Court from a decision of Hon. G. W. Brooks. Opinion deferred.

U. S. vs. Eli Collins: Indictment for manufacturing tobacco illegally. Richard Battle, Esq., of this city, appearing for the defendant. The Jury returned a verdict of "Guilty." Fined $200 and costs.

U. S. vs. Eli Collins: Distilling illegally. Verdict guilty. A motion was made in arrest of judgment. Opinion deferred.

U. S vs. E. S. Nutt and Jas B. Gattis: Distilling illegally. Verdict guilty. Judgment of Court: Fined $50 jointly and costs.

EXCURSION TO NORFOLK.—There will be a grand excursion over the N. C., the R. & G., and the S. & R. Railroads, leaving Charlotte on the 15th, at what hour we are not advised, arriving at Norfolk the 16th, and returning to Charlotte on the 17th of this month, at $8 for the round trip. The fare for the round trip from Raleigh is $6. A special train will leave Raleigh at 12 o'clock, midnight, of the 15th; and on arriving at Portsmouth the splendid Bay Steamer, Louisiana, will be waiting to take the excursionists to Old Point and the Capes. On the return of the steamer to Norfolk, the visitors will be invited to partake of a banquet furnished by the Board of trade, after which preparations will be made for the return. Particulars of the programme will be announced in due time. We are under obligation for tickets for the excursion for which we tender our thanks, hoping to be "in."

HOUSEKEEPERS! Be on your guard to-night. Look well to your vegetables, chickens, &c., The Heroes of American meet in this city to day. We have seen "Hon" W. F. Henderson, the biggest Hero of all the Heroes, who is, we believe, to preside over the conclave, thus giving it importance, respectability and dignity. We hope that the hero of this heroic concern will give the association the benefit of his experience in canvasing and canvassing for legislative honors against Judge Code Commissioner, Tourgee, in the late campaign.

STATE NEWS.

LODGED IN JAIL.—A man by the name of George Rafty, was lodged in jail on Sunday, charged with attempting to commit a rape on the wife of Jacob Keply, Esq., of this county.

A man by the name of Beaty was also committed to jail, on the charge of drunkeness and maltreating his wife. He was so much overcome by Mr. Tangleleg that he had to be rolled through the streets in a wheelbarrow.—Salisbury Examiner.

GEORGE BAYLINE.—This condemned man the surviving one of the three Ditcher Murderers, is in jail awaiting either his execution in the 25th inst., or the interference of Executive clemency in his behalf. No commuting of his sentence has as yet been promulgated by Gov. Holden, but the general impression prevails that his sentence will be changed to that of imprisonment for life.—Roanoke News.

A VINE WORTH HAVING.—A gentleman living in this vicinity has a grape vine for which he has been offered fifty dollars for the grapes upon it this year. He refuses to take this, unless he will be allowed as many of the grapes as himself and friends may wish. A few vines like this would be a little fortune.—Roanoke News.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—We learn from the Wilmington Star that a fire occurred at Lillington, on the 8th inst., by which the dwelling, kitchen and out houses of the residence occupied by Capt. J. P. Davis, were destroyed. The loss was considerable and there was no insurance.

COW DISTEMPER.—The papers in the Western part of the State notice a distemper among the cattle which has carried off many valuable animals.

IRON FOR THE SEASIDE RAILWAY.—The first iron ailment of iron for the Wilmington and Seaside Railway Company was landed in this city yesterday from the schooner Sadie Wilson, from Philadelphia, and consigned to Messrs. Harris & Harwell. It consists of 31 tons and is excellent material. It has a convex surface, being somewhat in the shape of the letter U.

We are informed that the Company will commence the work of preparing the track next week, taking advantage of the arrival of this iron, and in a very few months will be in active operation.—Wil Journal.

MAD DOG.—A mad dog was shot on yesterday, near the suburbs of town. The rabid animal did not succeed in doing any damage, but the excitement on West Corbin Street was at its height.—Goldsboro Messenger.

GENERAL NEWS.

In seven counties of Kentucky no person pays an income tax.

Jacob Belser, the former negro pressman of the Montgomery Mail, is a candidate for Congress in Alabama.

General George W. Cass is about to resign the Presidency of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad. He is a prominent candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Pennsylvania.

Efforts are making to bring about an interview, at the watering place of Carlsbad in Bohemia, between the Emperor of Austria and the King and the Crown-Prince of Prussia. The last interview of these high personages took place in Bohemia also, but at a place of blood, not of water.

A new cause for excitement in the Episcopal Churches of Chicago has been developed. It appears that Bishop Whitehouse has notified the Rev. Mr. Cheney, pastor of Christ Church, that he must cease the omission of the word "regenerate" in the baptismal service. But Mr. Cheney states that he cannot conscientiously use it. The Bishop has given him a few days to decide, and either use the word or be degraded from the ministry. It is said that Mr. Cheney's congregation warmly support him.

Out of 209 Connecticut legislators 116 are farmers.

Batz says he was poisoned several times in Mexico.

An American tourist named Bentley was recently killed near Reggio, in southern Italy, in a fight with bandits.

AUSTRALIA.—A terrible drought, it is reported, prevails in the central portion of Australia. The road from Wagga-Wagga to Hay is strewed with the skeletons or the decaying carcasses of wretched animals that have perished from starvation or thirst.—Horses, cattle and sheep, and even the wild animals of the plains—kangaroos, emus and turkeys—are lying dead in all directions, tainting the atmosphere and giving abundant occupation to the crows.—A traveler along this route says that the country can only be described as the "Valley of the Shadow of Death."

The Madrid Gaceta de los Caminos de Hierro says that a new kind of cotton, called bubuy, is now being extensively cultivated in the Phillippine Islands, through the exertions of a missionary, Father Rivas. The tree which produces it is of very large size; it begins to yield in its fourth year; after the fifth, it has generally attained the thickness of a man's body. Its pods measure from three to four inches; 100 of them will make up three pounds of cotton, which, cleansed, are paid at the rate of nine piastres (nine dollars) per hundred weight.

Genio C. Scott's "Fishing in American Waters" is highly praised in England.

During the past winter New York merchants have paid $11,000,000 for dry goods manufactured in the State of Rhode Island.

Mr. James, the Buffalo bootmaker, who sent Grant those "inauguration boots," has not received any office, and has sent in the bill to his member of Congress.

In Styria and Lower Austria the lower classes are very much given to eating arsenic, chiefly to obtain by that means a fresh, healthy glow in the countenance and rotundity of person. When about to ascend a hill they put a small lump of the poison in the mouth and let it dissolve, which greatly relieves them from fatigue.

About 120 years ago there were 101 Nonconformists places of worship in Wales.—Now there are 2,800. During the last 18 years the Calvinistic Methodists of Wales have built 321 new chapels, the Independents 118, and the Baptists 142 Taking Horace Mann's estimate that a people needs church-sitting for 58 per cent. of its population in order to be abundantly supplied, we find that the poor Nonconformists of Wales exceed this provision by 2,270.

Jean Dollfus, the great manufacurer of Millhausen, France, has given three million francs as a fund for sick and infirm workingmen, and to educate poor children. The population of the town is only about 30,000, so that this sum will be a very important benefit.

General Rosecrans, the American minister to Mexico, denies the statement recently published in the United States that he had asked permission to remain in Mexico until the perfection of his policy. It is said that at one time there was a well defined desire for an American protectorate in Mexico, but no wish to sell territory to the United States.

From the Standard of this Morning.

THE PROTESTING LAWYERS—WHAT WILL THEY DO?

The lawyers who were prohibited from practicing in the Supreme Court on account of their infamous attempt to injure the Judiciary of the State, are at a loss as to the course they will take. The just reproof of the Court was so wholly unexpected by them that their brains are so bewildered that they cannot decide what to do. Yesterday they had a committee appointed "to endeavor to accommodate, on honorable terms, the breach between the Court and the Bar." We hope the "breach" will be "accommodated," and upon "honorable terms"—terms upon which the Judiciary of North Carolina can consent to pardon men who have wantonly, and from malicious motives, insulted it. Let the Court be firm in its course, and it will have the applause of every fair minded man in the State. Its action, in refusing to allow the men who had insulted it to practice before it, was the only proper mode of rebuking an insolence so great as theirs. No such wanton attempt to injure the Judiciary of a great State has ever before been witnessed in this country. No part of the government of a State is more, important, or should be more carefully kept from the slightest suspicion, or taint, than the Judiciary, for it is the tribunal to which is referred for settlement every disputed question, and its decision is final. If suspicion is cast upon its integrity, therefore it is felt throughout the State, and acts detrimentally to every interest of the people. There can be no excuse for the conduct of the originators of that disgraceful protest, for they well knew that their charges were wholly without foundation. That they anticipated that the document would receive such general disapprobation is not for a moment to be thought. They simply intended it as a political weapon to be used for the benefit of their party, and as a means of intimidating the Judiciary. They considered it as a sharp piece of political bragadocia. Like many sharp people, however, they outwitted themselves, and were soon glad to retire before the storm they themselves had created. That every lawyer whose name appears signed to the protest intended to insult the Judiciary we do not believe. Some were led into the error by seeing attached to the paper the names of men who were old enough to know better, and to do better, than to uphold such an unmerited insult to the highest legal tribunal of the State. This fact, however, cannot be urged in mitigation of their offence, as no man, especially a sharp lawyer, is supposed to be so foolish as to affix his name to a paper he has not read, as many of those who signed the protest claim to have done. We hope in unenviable predicament in which they now find themselves will have the effect of making these gentlemen, some of whom have not yet cut their legal eye teeth, more cautious about attaching their names to papers of whose purport they know nothing. We do not wish to add to the feelings of humiliation which their present position must cause these legal luminaries, yet we cannot refrain from pointing out to them how completely the entire Democratic legal fraternity has been entrapped and bamboozled by two or three cunning politicians. Their feelings cannot be enviable when they reflect how two or three of their old political antagonists have made catspaws of them to rake their political chestnuts from out the political fire. They must feel considerably ashamed when they reflect how completely they have been fooled by their venerable leaders. They have one consolation, however, that is, the monkeys have also got scorched. Let these gentlemen hereafter beware of bad advisers, and never again suffer themselves to be so easily cajoled, or their reputation as keen lawyers will be greatly damaged. They should reflect that no man will repose any great confidence in the legal abilities of gentlemen who have been so completely and easily tricked as they have been. Let them go before the Court, confess their wrong doing, and make an ample apology therefor. This is the only course left open to them, if they would act honorably and regain the confidence of the people—a confidence they forfeited by endorsing such an unwarranted insult to the Judiciary of their State. Their apology should be as ample as the insult was great, and the Court should accept no other. We understand that the lawyers have determined to apologise. This is the only way in which they can gain permission to practice before the Court. They are not compelled to apologise, but they must do so, or be forever debarred from practice in the Supreme Court, and most probably, in the Superior Courts. If they apologise they admit by so doing that their protest was groundless and the charges it contained false. This will reflect severely upon the characters of those who signed the protest, but it will be but doing tardy justice to the Judiciary they have so wantonly maligned it, on the other hand, they honestly believe what they have stated in their protest to be true, they cannot consistently, or with honor to themselves, make the required apology, for by so doing they would prove themselves hypocrites, willing to sacrifice that which they believe to be right for the sake of filthy lucre. Neither could they with self-respect practice before a Court they believe to be so corrupt. Under these circumstances the action of the "protesting" lawyers will be awaited with much interest.—If they apologise to the Court they confess that they never believed to be true the charges to which they so solemnly affixed their names, and themselves give the lie to their own accusations. If they do believe them to be true they will not apologise, or by apologising will show that they have no honest principle and self respect. The people of North Carolina have now an opportunity to unerringly judge of the motives and honesty of those lawyers who assailed the Judiciary of the State. Let the people attend.

It is reported that one day, when Lord Brougham had driven to the House in the vehicle of his invention, which Robinson, the coachmaker, had christened after him, he was met in the robing room by the Duke of Wellington, who, after a low blow, accosted him. "I have always hitherto lived under the impression that your lordship will go down to posterity as the great apostle of education, the emancipator of the negro, the restorer of abused charities, the reformer of the law; but no—you will be hereafter known only as the inventor of a carriage." "And I, my lord duke, have always been under the delusion that your grace would be remembered as the hero of a hundred battles, the liberator of Europe, the conqueror of Napoleon; but no—your grace will be known as the inventor of a pair of boots." "Confound the boots," said the Iron Duke, "I had forgotten them. You have the best of it."

W. E. Dodge, John I. Blair, Moses Taylor, and the Messrs. Scranton, the projectors of the new railroad extension from Newton to Franklin Furnace, New Jersey, have recently purchased one million dollars' worth of mining and other lands in Sussex county, and are erecting in Franklin one of the most extensive iron-blast furnaces in the country for the manufacture of Franklin pig-iron.

An International industrial exhibition will be opened at Altona, North Germany, during the months of August and September.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON June 9.—Revenue to-day half a million. Boutwell realized $2,778,000.

Mr. Peabody has arrived

President Grant departed for West Point to-day.

Secretary Boutwell departs in the morning.—Wm. A. Richardson acts during Boutwell's absence.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that persons engaged in the business of preparing pork and lard for sale, who slaughter hogs, cut up and pack pork, and render lard, packing the same in barrels, kegs and otherwise are clearly embraced within the definition of a manufacturer and are required to pay a tax on their sales annually in excess of five thousand dollars.

Attorney General Hoar decides that no cable can be landed connecting the United States with any foreign country without the special consent of Congress.

The house of the Conservative whom the police rescued from the mob was gutted and the furniture smashed. The family was absent.—Several small outrages and robberies have occurred.

The President received the new Peruvian minister to-day. There was nothing significant in the speeches.

The Herald says: "The Attorney General is said to have hesitated a long time before he furnished his recent opinion sustaining a Texas court martial in the trial of a citizen for the murder of a freedman, and that his actual view of the law at first suggested an entirely opposite decision. But that General Butler said "he would offer a resolution on the subject in the next session if he (Hoar) did not make an example of some of these fellows" and under this pressure the recent opinion was made."

Information from a reliable source in Havana has been received here, asserting that the Cubans are engaged in an active offensive movement, and were never in better spirits or more sanguine of success. Telegrams from Havana deny the report that any number of Cubans, or any officer of Cuban forces has surrendered to Vaimaseda.

The excitement in Cuban circles in New York Sunday night, originated by a report telegraphed by the Spaniards that Cespedes had surrendered. Subsequent dispatches from Cuban sources prove the report entirely unfounded.

FROM ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, June 9.—The Democratic Convention at Troy yesterday nominated A. N. Worthy, of Pike, for Congress in this the 2nd District. His disabilities have been removed by act of Congress. The Republicans met in this city yesterday and nominated C. W. Buckley as their candidate. The Republican Convention to nominate for the 3rd district met at Opelika yesterday. There is a wide split between the native and carpet-bag elements. The scenes of the Nashville Convention are being repeated, and both sides are indulging in reproaches. A special to the Advertiser says that up to 4 o'clock this P. M. no organization had been effected and that a break up was imminent. The fight is against Norris, the late incumbent.

FROM GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, June 9.—A letter from Sandersville, Washington county, to the Chronicle states that Col Reu Flournoy, Democratic representative in the Legislature was murdered in his own field yesterday, by a negro man in his employ. The negro has been committed to jail.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, June 9.—Gen. Canby has appointed Judge Advocate H. B. Burnham to be Judge of the Virginia Court of Appeals.

Memorial day was observed in Petersburg today. Business was generally suspended and many buildings were draped in mourning.

FROM NEW YORK.

ALBANY, June 9.—The Typographical Convention passed a resolution admitting proxies as an act of courtesy, not as a right. C. Halloran, proxy of Montgomery, Ala., Union, protested.—The proxy of the Burlington, Iowa, Union also protested and withdrew. A petition for a woman's Union was referred to a special committee.

NEW YORK, June 9.—Judge Blatchford has ordered the release of the Quaker City on bond.

The Hotel waiters' strike has ended. The proprietors were victorious

FRANCE.

PARIS, June 9.—Official returns to this department show 30 official, 28 opposition, and 1 unknown members of the Corps Legislatif. The general result is, 313 official 42 independent and 35 Radical. Quite serious riot occurred at Nantes and Bordeaux yesterday.

SPAIN.

MADRID, June 9.—The Cortes debated the regency bill at great length and finally referred it to a Committee. Olozaga said at present the election of a King was impossible.

ENGLAND.

LIVERPOOL, June 9.—Eight thousand emigrants for America left here last week.

MARKETS.

WILMINGTON, June 9.—Spirits turpentine steady at 40. Rosin quiet at $1 70 to $3 50. Crude turpentine lower, $1 60 to $2 00. Tar unchanged.

NEW YORK June 9.—Cotton firmer and active Sales 5,700 bales at 31¼. Flour favors buyers, with moderate demand. Superfine $4¼ to $5 20 Common to fair extra Southern $6 20 to $6 95. Wheat 1 cent better. Corn export moderate, with home demand. Corn 1 cent better. Good home moderate export in demand. New white Southern 98. Pork active at 31¼. Lard steady. Whiskey quiet at 93. Groceries quiet and firmer. Naval Stores heavy. Turpentine 44¼ to 45. Rosin $2 25 to $6 50. Freights dull.

Governments closed steady. 6's 22¼. Southern heavy. Louisianas 73. Levees 66¼. Money light at 6, with some exceptions. Commissions 1 Sterling 9¼ to 9½. Gold weak at 38¼. Stock weak and excited. Several failures are reported in consequence of the decline in stocks.

LIVERPOOL, June 9.—Cotton quiet. Upland 11¾ Orleans 12. Sales 10,000 bales.

BALTIMORE, June 9.—Cotton 31. Flour quoted lower. Wheat weak, prices unchanged Corn firm and higher. White 90 to 92. Yellow 85 to 87 Pork firm. Bacon active at 14¼ Hams 20 to 21. Whiskey flat at $1 09 Virginias Ex. Interest 48½. 65's 50½. Bids 7 54.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 10, M.—It is almost certain that Boutwell will persevere in selling two millions gold and buying one million bonds. It is certain there will be no change during Boutwell's absence.

The statement that a number of New York capitalists had contracted to loan the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company twelve millions of dollars to build the Road is reliably stated, is not founded on fact. Negotiations are going on and it is probable that a visit will be made over the Road before any proposition is entertained.

The train carrying President Grant northward was thrown from the track, at Annapolis junction, by running over a cow. Two cars were smashed, and several persons were injured, including Mr. Wield, of Atlanta, Ga., whose face was badly smashed. The Presidential party was uninjured.

FOREIGN MISCELLANY.

LONDON, June 10.—The Archbishop of Canterbury counsels the Bishops not to oppose the disestablishment bill. A banquet was given in London to the bearers of the Irish memorial against the bill. Many lord Peers and Clergymen of the established church were present. The French Minister of Foreign affairs thanked the Prussian Minister for the friendly tone of the Prussian press, regarding the French elections

A new decree has been issued authorizing the use of the Polish language in the administration of the internal service in Poland.

Lack of harmony in the Spanish ministry is manifest, and an early change is expected.

The French corps Legislatif convened on the 28th. The election frauds at Nantes were serious; the soldiers used their bayonets. There were tumultuous gatherings in Montmartre yesterday which were dispersed by the troops.

HAVANA, June 10, M.—Jordan's filibusters are near Trinidad. The Governor of Trinidad, refusing to resign, was killed by the volunteers.—The Cuevitas Railroad is again cut near the city. There is severe skirmishing near Trinidad.

FROM OHIO.

CINCINNATI, June 10, M.—A fierce tornado passed over Miamisburg, Ohio, destroying bridges, and fences and unroofing houses.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, June 10, M.—Stocks weak and excited; money active at 7. Sterling 9¼. Gold 39. 6's 24¾. N. Cs 97; new 84¾. Va's old 57; new 61¾. Tennessees ex-coupons, 64¼; new 62. La's, old 74, sevens 65¾.

Flour quiet, unchanged; wheat a shade firmer; corn 1 cent better; pork quiet 31,90; lard quiet; cotton steadier at 31¼; turpentine 44½; rosin irregular, 2,3c 10c asked.

LIVERPOOL, June 10, M.—Cotton firmer. Uplands 11¾ Orleans 12. Sales 10,000 bales.

HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES

SAY OF THE

BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIJAH WARNE.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

June 7th, 2w.

ROBERT SOUTTER, OF GRANVILLE COUNTY,

realising the importance of spreading the growth of Wheat in this County; and the farmers, knowing so well the absolute necessity of supplying themselves at an early period with "Seed Wheat" of the finest quality, ready to plant in the Fall, the undersigned takes this early method of inviting applications from farmers, for what they may require to plant next Fall, of the very "Select Seed Wheat" which he expects to deliver at moderate prices, from the crop growing now at his "Oakland Farm" near Townsville, in this County.

This Wheat was planted last Fall, with Guano, of seed selected in Baltimore with great care by my predecessor Mr. Chas. H. E. Taylor, who paid $3,25 for it there. It has had the advantage of a heavy top-dressing in Spring of Chicago bone Fertiliser, and is now very promising.

Like the good Sorghum Seed which I have offered to the farmers of Granville, I hope the orders for my "Seed Wheat" may be equally attractive, to absorb all that I can expect to spare of it.

Address me at Kittrell's Springs, or Mr. Thos. W. Taylor, at Oakland Farm

ABIDE WITH ME.

"Abide with me; for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent."

Abide with me; fast fall's the even-tide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide;
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O thou who changest not, abide with me.

I need thy presence every passing hour;
What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

I fear no foe with thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if thou abide me.

Hold thou thy Cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee.
In life in death, O Lord, abide with me.

which will be sold as cheap, or cheaper than they can be bought elsewhere in the City.

Where you will find a large and beautiful assortment of embracing almost everything suitable for the season, styles good, and goods pretty, prices all right, be sure to come to Creech's before you buy.

LADIES DRESS GOODS,

HATS! HATS!!

Cheap enough. What is the use to go bare headed when you are able to buy a new Hat?

SHOES! SHOES!!

A large assortment, come along, bring your Greenbacks, Creech's is the place to buy your Shoes.

Bonnets, Spring styles, some small enough and some large enough. For Ladies, Misses and Children trimmed and untrimmed Hats. A beautiful assortment, come lay away your old hat, and always come to Creech's before you buy a new one &c., &c.

Keep it before the people, that I told the people six months ago, that I intended to pass through my campaign, with my motto to give each and every individual value received, for their valuable support giving the Ladies a fine opportunity to exercise there immutable rights, as well as the gentlemen, and since that time thousands have shown their good judgment by coming and demonstrating the truth of my assertion. I tell you Creech's is the place. And permit me to return my sincere thanks for your very liberal and valuable patronage for the last twenty five years. I hope by strict attention to business and honest dealing, giving cash and every one the worth of their money, that I will continue to receive a liberal share of your patronage. The rest of my talking I shall do at my place of business which is Creech's Corner Fayetteville street Raleigh.

TO RAILROAD CONTRACTORS.

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD,
OFFICE OF CHIEF ENGINEER,
Asheville May 6th 1869.

PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED AT THIS office until the 10th of June next, for the Graduation Masonry, Bridge superstructure and Ballasting of one hundred miles of this Road, including (45) miles of the Branch Road down the French Broad river. This, the Western Division of the Road, extends from Asheville westward towards Chattanooga (135) one hundred and thirty-five miles, and a narrow gauge branch towards Cincinnati (45) forty-five miles. To contractors, this work presents attractive features consisting of tunnelling and other rock excavations, crossing several mountain ranges, besides a large amount of bridge masonry. All of which is accessible to the contractor, being for the most part near the turnpike roads leading from Asheville. Maps, plans, profiles and specifications will be ready after the 20th of May for inspection.

All necessary information in regard to the work may be obtained at this office upon application.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers, and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so muddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL-CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of $1,000,000

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued [illegible] policies.

Amount insured,	$10,005,500.00
Total Premiums,	$30,117.03

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 802

By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey,	694
" New England Mutual,	343
" Phœnix Mutual,	338
" Massachusetts Mutual,	312
" Equitable of New York,	277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.

In its 10th year,	1,260 "
And in its 20th year,	2,842 "

this latter being 636 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

FIRST CLASS NEWSPAPER.

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers the ruby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

The Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot rain and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through fabric, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the coarsest blanket. For Flannels it is unrivaled, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and removing the dirt, WITHOUT LABOR OR FRICTION.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHERS, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.
